RESERVATION NEWS

By June Cook

Francis McKinlay, director of community facilities left Wednesday for Sheridan, Wyo, where he will represent the Ute Tribe at the Governor's Interstate Indian Council Mr McKinlay is one of four members appointed by Gov J Bracken Lee, March 25, 1956 for the State advisory committee on Indian Affairs Jason Cuch, trial chairman also attended the Council

Lula Murdock, president, and Elizabeth Bumgarner, secretary for the mixed blood board of directors motored to Salt Lake City Wednesday where they witnessed the signature of John S. Boyden to the one-year contract for lawyer for the Affiliated Ute Citizens of Utah.

Darrell Williams accompanied them to Salt Lake City where he received medical attention

Mrs. Florence R. Miller, director of social work, Phoenix area office, was at the agency last week conferring with the tribal and agency staff of the reservation. Mrs. Miller worked particularly with L. C. Coleman, welfare agent and Reed Hansen, newly appointed agent for the rehabilitation program offered the mixed blood Indians through the University of Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Carter left for Gallup, N. M., Sunday. Mr. Carter will assist the Gallup police force to maintain law and order during the annual American Indian Days dance ceremonies.

E. M Axtell, civil irrigation engineer from Alexandra, Va., spent a week on the reservaton on a routine field inspection trip. He will leave Tuesday to meet with the area land operations officer in Reno, Nev. Mr. Axtell was irrigation engineer for this agency and resided in Ft. Duchesne before his transfer to Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Padia from Ft. Washakie, Wyo., were agency visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Parriett were in Salt Lake and Brigham City over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mitchell from Orem visited relatives over the weekend and spent Sunday with the Preston Allens at Altonah.